Dear Mr Ainsworth,

I am surprised by your response and disregard for the concerns that I raised with you. You have chosen to be in public office and represent the people of Coventry North East in our parliament. You have taken the precipitous action of making public statements regarding the Walsgrave Hospital NHS Trust and consistently supported its actions and performance in the face of the widely held view that we have a seriously dysfunctional and troubled management. It is you that has elected to make public statements and it is to you that I have responded. I hope you will now be good enough to reply to my letter of 7th October 2005 and also explain your reasons for telling me and the people of Coventry why you feel it necessary to volunteer your view and hold the position "the hospital Trust is doing very well at the moment". I reiterate my question of whether you will now support an independent inquiry into our failing Trust management and its obvious waste of taxpayers money.

Yours sincerely,

Mr P Ignjatovic
